

Hello Ladies!

Well, it is finally May! Love seeing all the beautiful trees budding, lilacs abound and warmer weather. The warmer weather is truly a godsend when you are blessed enough to have four grandchildren and they ALL play sports. It can get mighty chilly in those aluminum stands, but I truly enjoy watching them play and develop so life is good.

Now let's catch up on what is happening with our guild.

Comfort Quilts distributed a total of forty-one quilts to the following organizations – Central Falls Children's Foundation – Jenks Park Residence, the Department of Children, Youth and Families, Hope Alzheimer Center, Mother of Life Pregnancy Center, Operation Standdown and St. Vincent de Paul Society. We also donated a quilt as a fundraiser for a young lady who is undergoing cancer treatment. All quilts were well received and so very thankful. Remember to turn in your comfort quilts at the May meeting so you can receive credit for what you have accomplished and over the summer it will be tallied, and winners will be announced in September.

The big announcement of Programs for next year will be at our May meeting. You will be as excited as I am with the line-up of teachers. Remember to bring your check(s) when you sign up for a class. If you do not date your check, there will not be a problem when we deposit it.

The Strawberry Social will be held in Fellowship Hall from 6:30 to 7 p.m. We will not be hosting The Boutique this month because of space issues.

We will be voting on whose quilt will be going to the New England Quilt Museum. When you check in at the membership table you will receive your ballot so, please remember to vote. The voting will take place starting at 6 p.m. and will close at 7 p.m. You will need to let Alice Hourihan know if you are bringing a quilt so she can assign a number to your quilt.

Quilt show racks – the Board decided to purchase ten more racks, now we have a total of twenty and yay! This will be a major factor in helping to expedite setting up for the quilt show.

Renewal of membership – The bylaws state renewals must be done by July 1st. Please get your renewal in as soon as possible.

As we close out my third year as your president may I just say how much I enjoy working with such a great bunch of ladies. You all make NBQA what it is – outstanding!

Education

On April 2, the Education Committee visited the Narragansett Public Library Children's Room to present an activity which we called 'Spring Chickens.' Six boys and girls and their Librarians made chicken bean bags by stuffing and sewing pre-prepared chicken bodies. A good time was had by all!

On May 9, we will be returning to the Library to work with Girl Scout Troop 1009, a 21-member group and their three leaders. The activity we will offer to them is to learn how to embroider summer bandanas.

On June 27, the Committee will be visiting the Warwick Public Library's day camp to work with several groups of campers on sewing activities.

If you would like to join our Committee, please contact me:
Peggy Ann Lane, at drpalane@cox.net.

I would like to thank NBQ-members Natalie, Mary, Susan and Pamela, who have volunteered to be 'on call' if we need them for our bigger projects. We appreciate your help!

HOSPITALITY

We are planning on a delicious Strawberry Social at our May meeting! This Social will be to honor members we have lost this past year

COMFORT QUILTS

Keep them coming! Last month we took in some gorgeous quilts. The Comfort Quilt Committee will be meeting the first week in May to decide on further distribution. Also, please remember - you must turn in whatever you have completed by the May meeting so the tally can be done over the Summer and prizes will be awarded at the September meeting.

PROGRAMS

Get ready! The 2025-2026 line-up of Programs will be announced at the May meeting. We will also be in the foyer for sign ups! Just remember to bring your checkbook. This is going to be a great year for NBQA!!!!

GUIDELINES FOR DONATION QUILTS!!

When piecing a quilt for donation, be sure quality is part of the job!

- Check for accurate  $\frac{1}{4}$ " seams to ensure seams stay together securely!
- Backs are pieced, if needed, and large enough for the long armer. A rule of thumb is at least 4" extra backing material on each or the four sides
- It is helpful if the raw edge of the quilt is stay-stitched all around

These guidelines will help ensure all our donated quilts are of the highest quality possible!

Quilts of Valor

Quilts of Valor at the Seabee Museum and Memorial Park

Welcome to our neighborhood. Can it be true? It is hard to believe that we have been embedded in the Seabee neighborhood for a year now! We are thrilled to be welcomed so warmly by the Seabee crew and visiting tourists each time we meet. Our goal is to educate the public of the organization, both NBQA and QOVF. In addition, and more importantly, we strive to cover veterans of all services in order to thank them for their service to us all.

Our schedule will change in May and we will be able to sew on Wednesday and Friday. If there is an interest Saturdays can be added through the summer. Typically we sew from 9:30 to 1:00ish. We have some machines available but if you prefer not to sew you can cut fabric, iron, bind, sort our bins or help use the Accuquilt to create kits for others.

Contact Karen Iris if you have questions or nominations for us.

Upcoming Events

May 17th at the Seabee Museum and Memorial Park
QOVF Award Ceremony at Noon. We will sew as well
Please join us if you are able.

Memorial Day is the only day of the year when there are no Quilts of Valor awarded in respect for those who served and are no longer with us. May they rest in peace.

June 14th at Dare to Dream Ranch in Foster, Rhode Island
QOVF Award Ceremony Time to be determined
This will be a large presentation coordinated by the QOVF Regional Coordinator. More information soon.

Gallery Talk: Mary Kerr on "Make-Do Quilts"

The NEQM is pleased to welcome guest speaker Mary Kerr for a gallery talk in her exhibition, which features her vintage collection of "Make-Do" quilts and the contemporary versions they inspired her to create.

This public program is free to members and included in the price of admission for nonmembers.

About Mary Kerr

Kerr is an award winning quilter and an American Quilters Society certified appraiser. She is a quilt historian whose lectures and workshops focus on quilt history and the preservation of antique textiles. Her current work marries her love of all things vintage with the freedom of expression that is encouraged in the art quilt community.

Craft Supply Swap

at the Westerly Armory

Drop-off dates:
May 15 and 16,
Thursday and Friday
between 10 and 4

"Shopping":
May 17, Saturday
from 10 to 4

What is a Craft Supply Swap?

Donations of your new and gently used craft supplies are brought to the Armory on the take-in days. (Sometimes people donate unfinished projects, too.)

On the "shopping" day, you arrive and find things that you can use. There is no money exchanged, just the supplies and lots of smiles.

What can I donate?

Here are some ideas: quilting supplies, yarn, string, paints, brushes, canvases, craft papers, calligraphy pens, stickers, buttons, fabrics, knitting and crocheting supplies, markers, beads, pipe cleaners, holiday craft supplies, wrapping paper, tissue paper, woodworking tools, soap making, candle making, weaving, scissors, crayons, pens, clay, ink, stamps, stencils, scrapbooking supplies, drawing pads, sewing supplies, glue guns and glue, jewelry making, mosaics—Actually, there may be too much to list, but you get the idea.

Can I "shop" if I don't donate?

Yes, take whatever you need. Remaining items will be donated to local charities. There will be a time in your life when you DO have something to donate, so no worries.

The Westerly Armory is located at 41 Railroad Avenue, Westerly, RI.

Any questions?

Please contact Ellie at EllieBCoffey@gmail.com.

One Day Getaway for Quilters and Crafters

Westerly Armory

Saturday, June 7, 9am to late night (like 9pm)

Enjoy a day with old friends and new and sew or craft to your heart's content.

Kelli Fannin Quilt Designs

A Roomy Place to Create

Because there is a limit of outlets in an historical building like the Armory, we have to be judicious about the power.

- A. Forty people will be allowed to have a socket for the day. You will also be entitled to half of a table that is 8 feet by 30 inches. (Nice and roomy so you can layout a project very well.) The cost will be $30 for a day of uninterrupted sewing and chatting.

The "electric" tables will be around the perimeter of the room. There will be four ironing stations as well.

- B. In the center of the room will be round tables that seat up to six people. These are for people who are working on handwork or any craft that does not require electricity. Because crafts take space, there will be two or three people to a round table (you choose). The fee for one of these stations is $20. There is a limit of 40 for the non-electric table tickets.

Snacks and Meals

As we have to keep up our strength, there will be a table for snacks that people have brought to share. (optional.)

Catered boxed lunches from Wild Side Market of Pawcatuck. Choice of a salad AND a sandwich for $9. Options for sandwiches are: roast beef, vegetarian, turkey, chicken salad, grilled chicken. Salads will be either grain, veggie, pasta or rice. There will also be a choice of chips or fruit. Ginger Acosta is the chef/owner and her food is super fresh and the flavor combinations are always delicious. (Ellie will ask for specific choices closer to the event.)

Slices of Vesta cake will be available for dessert. ($3 each)

Dinner will be a Vetrano's pizza party and salad bar. ($8)

Please note: You can bring your own lunch and dinner; a refrigerator and a microwave are available.

Education

At 11am, Ellie Coffey will demonstrate how to take a boring (or damaged) piece of clothing and turn it into something special. Supply kits will be available for a nominal fee.

Entertainment

While we'll be entertaining ourselves all day, if people want to, we can hold a show-and-tell after dinner.

Tickets available at <https://westerlyarmory.com/events>

The Armory is located at 41 Railroad St., Westerly, RI
